WILSHIRE PRESIDENTIAL SUITE

BEVERLY WILSHIRE, A FOUR SEASONS
 HOTEL, BEVERLY HILLS, CALIFORNIA, USA

From the vantage point of the eighth-floor Wilshire Presidential Suite, you'll be entranced by views of Rodeo Drive and the Hollywood Hills. The iconic hotel was built in 1928, and the Wilshire Presidential Suite, located in the original Wilshire Wing, features original designs, such as the roman columns that extend to the top of the double-height ceiling, crown moldings and a skylight. A neutral color palette and contemporary interiors evoke classic Beverly Hills and old-school Hollywood glamour. Exclusive to guests of the suite is a Porsche Panamera for personal use around the city, dedicated personal concierge and, in true Californian fashion, five hours of personal time per week with the choice of spa treatments, personal trainer, fashion stylist and hair-and-makeup artist.

JOHN JACOB ASTOR ESTATE

THE ST. REGIS MALDIVES VOMMULI RESORT, DHAALU ATOLL, MALDIVES

Clear views of the turquoise ocean extend for miles when you stay at the John Jacob Astor Estate, one of the St. Regis's most luxurious offerings in the Maldives. Located directly off of the private-island resort with white-sand beaches and rainforest, the massive estate is a two-level, three-bedroom bungalow suspended atop crystal-clear waters. Inside, its sleek design focuses on muted materials, and the furniture draws upon traditional style from Indian Ocean cultures. On the main deck, lounge chairs and daybeds surround the 900-sq-ft infinity pool and Jacuzzi, and stairs lead directly into the ocean for underwater adventure. Its location at the west of the island yields spectacular sunset views each night.

TY WARNER PENTHOUSE

FOUR SEASONS HOTEL NEW YORK, NEW YORK

Sprawled across the 52nd floor of the Four Seasons Hotel New York is the 4,300-sq-ft Ty Warner Penthouse. Floating 500 feet above Manhattan, you have 360-degree views of the entire city through 25-ft bay windows or from four cantilevered glass balconies — the highest in the world. The penthouse — designed by architect IM Pei, designer Peter Marino and the hotel's owner, Ty Warner — took seven years to finish and has one-of-a-kind furnishings, including master bath sinks carved from blocks of rock crystal, hand-lacquered mother-of-pearl inlay and an extravagant fiber-optic glass-shard chandelier above the dining table. Complimentary beauty treatments are offered in the suite's private spa, plus you can have an art concierge and a private Rolls-Royce chauffeur for the duration of your stay.
