Into the Great Wide Open

Four properties that are prime for outdoor entertaining this summer

Driggs, Idaho

1050 Bitterroot Court • Tributary

$2.75 million • 3,070 SQUARE FEET

4 BEDROOMS • 4.5 BATHROOMS

Just a short drive from Grand Teton and Yellowstone National Parks, Tributary is the ultimate residential community for adventurers. Even high-octane thrill seekers need a place to relax with family and friends, though. Walls of windows, stone accents, and a beamed ceiling lend this cabin a rustic-chic vibe, and a back deck that runs the length of the home is perfect for barbecues. Prefer to have someone else do the cooking? Head to Tributary's farm-to-table restaurant, and then take a wildlife-watching stroll along the two-mile elevated boardwalk. tributaryidaho.com

Providenciales, Turks and Caicos

Grand Residence R-4
The Strand • $10 million

7,312 SQUARE FEET • 6 BEDROOMS • 7 BATHROOMS

When in Turks and Caicos, you want to spend as much time outside as possible—which makes this palatial oceanfront home ideal. A lush courtyard boasts an outdoor kitchen and plunge pool (cocktails and a dip?), while the main house’s great room opens onto another outdoor terrace, equipped with an infinity pool that really does seem to stretch right into the ocean. Watch the sunset from the second-floor suite’s balcony, or amble on down to the private grotto beach to see the light sparkle on the water up close. thestrandtci.com

West Hollywood, California

Terrace Estate 803 • Pendry Residences
West Hollywood by Montage Hotels & Resorts • $13 million

5,735 SQUARE FEET • 3 BEDROOMS • 3 BATHROOMS

There are plenty of reasons to love this two-level residence, but the views—of the Hollywood Hills, DTLA, and the LA Basin—are at the top of the list. Take in the scenery from the nearly 3,000-square-foot terrace, which has a full kitchen, hot tub, and firepit, or from inside, through floor-to-ceiling windows. Residents can enjoy the Pendry Hotel’s amenities (spa, rooftop pool, Wolfgang Puck restaurants), along with exclusive access to a fitness center, wine-tasting room, private lobby, and more. pendryresidencesweho.com

Richmond Hill, Georgia

1514 Dublin Drive • The Ford Field & River Club • $4.995 million
8,304 SQUARE FEET • 6 BEDROOMS • 3 FULL BATHROOMS, 3 HALF BATHROOMS
