

MAIN STORIES

RED-STATE HOSPITAL CRISIS

p.5

Texas Gov. Greg Abbott

TALKING POINTS

Are vaccinated people getting sick?

p.17

TECHNOLOGY

The coming of the 'metaverse'

p.20

THE WEEK

THE BEST OF THE U.S. AND INTERNATIONAL MEDIA

A shameful ending

Is Biden to blame for the Taliban's victory in Afghanistan?

Pages 4, 6

Best properties on the market

4 ▶ Driggs, Idaho

This three-bedroom home is in Tributary, a 1,500-acre private club community next to Yellowstone National Park and the Tetons. The house, built in 2020, features high wooden ceilings, oversized windows, and a main bedroom with soaking tub and glass doors to the outside. The club includes 250 acres in a conservation easement, a 2-mile boardwalk, a golf course, a fitness center, seven fishing ponds, a pool, and a private ski lodge at Grand Targhee Resort in Wyoming. $2,250,000. Jeff Heilbrun, Tributary, (307) 690-1508

5 ◀ Manchester-by-the-Sea, Mass. From a hilltop on 2.7 wooded acres, this five-bedroom home commands views of the adjacent Wyman Hill Conservation Area and beyond. The 2007 shingle-style house includes a three-season screened porch; main bedroom with vaulted ceiling, Palladian window, and spa bathroom; and lower-level media room, art room, and exercise area opening to the yard. The landscaped grounds feature lawns, garden beds, mature trees, and a rear terrace with direct access to Wyman Hill's hiking trails. $2,995,000. Lanse Robb and Sophie Soman, LandVest/Christie's International Real Estate, (978) 590-0056

6 ▶ Estes Park, Colo. This 1945 cabin, in the town known as the base camp for Rocky Mountain National Park, has views of Twin Sisters, Meeker, and Longs Peaks. The fully furnished two-bedroom home features a living room, separate dining room, 440-square-foot deck, and attached workshop with shower. The 1.5-acre property includes a one-room cabin built in 1955, now a guest cottage with private bathroom and front porch. $525,000. Nicole White, Mountain West Real Estate, (970) 586-8220

